D. A. R. REGENTS MAKE REPORTS

District Chapters Meet in Memorial Continental Hall and Transact Business.

BOOMS IN THE MAKING

Mrs. Woodbury Palifer Is the Only Candidate for Vice Regency of the District.

Reports of the forty-six regents of the American Revolution and of chapters of special committees, were completed at the afternoon session of the annual meeting yesterday, in Memorial Continental Hall. Days from now until the second annual Congress of the D. A. R., which opens on April 12, will be filled with the bustle of preparation, and enlivened with free play of politics.

Mrs. Wallace Hanger or Mrs. Charles W. Hanger, probably will be the next State regent for the District, which office is now filled by Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood. Booms for each of these candidates stalked boldly through the corridors of Memorial Continental Hall yesterday.

Only one candidate has so far appeared for the vice regency of the District, and the prediction runs that she is almost certain of election. This candidate is Mrs. Woodbury Palifer. It is expected that Mrs. Howard Hodgkin will be endorsed as the District's candidate for vice president general, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey is suggested for honorary regent of the District.

Mrs. Mary Lockwood, the present State regent, made her valedictory address during the morning session yesterday. She traced the history of the D. A. R. and told of the work done in the District during her two years' regency. She also spoke at length of the women of the American Revolution deserving of especially warm places in the memories of Americans of today. She said that two volumes of the famous Ley records have been printed, and that a third volume is on the press.

Musical Programme Given.

Reports of the chapter regents dealt with the work of these chapters during the past year. What is being accomplished in educating immigrants to become good citizens of the United States was told by Mrs. George Sternberg, regent of the Army and Navy Chapter. Several regents spoke of the good that can be done by giving medals and prizes among the children to encourage the study of American history.

Several musical selections were interspersed in the routine business programme. Miss Elizabeth Maxwell sang two songs and responded to a hearty encore. Miss Kate Alderman played for her. Her songs were "Love Has Wings" (Rogers), "Will-o'-the-Wisp" (Spross), and the encore, "In the Deep of the Delude" (Havens). Miss May E. Greaves accompanied the singing of several patriotic songs by the members. Mrs. Herald A. Lewis ordered the musical programme. Mrs. Morgan D. Lewis is chairman of the committee on music.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan are among those on the programme for addresses before the congress. The programme will be issued today. More than 2,000 women are expected to attend the congress.

The chapter regents making reports yesterday were Mrs. Leonard M. Mattingly, Mrs. George M. Sternberg, Mrs. E. Winton Holt, Mrs. Edwin E. Greaves, Miss Laura V. Walker, Mrs. Charles P. Granfield, Mrs. Mary C. McLaughlin, Mrs. Eugene M. Brown, Mrs. William H. Bixby, Mrs. Clara E. Davis, Mrs. Sarah C. Guss, Mrs. M. E. Davis, Mrs. James McNabb, Miss E. B. Hall, Mrs. Bertha M. Robbins, Mrs. Sarah J. Croisant, Mrs. Katherine T. Gerald, Mrs. Sarah A. Clements, Miss L. E. Greaves, Mrs. Ellis Logan, Mrs. M. B. Berry, Mrs. Edwin K. Hill, Mrs. Roberta Magruder, Mrs. Noble N. Potts, Miss M. L. Giddard, Mrs. M. B. Moore, Mrs. Mary E. S. Van Nostrand Vandergrift, Mrs. Mary A. Beach, Mrs. George T. Smallwood, Mrs. L. H. Quirello, Mrs. Mary St. Clair Blackburn, Miss B. E. Nabers, Mrs. Anna G. Draper, Mrs. S. A. Willis, Mrs. Mary A. Miller, Mrs. Maude L. Greenawalt, Miss M. E. Smith, Mrs. M. A. Winter, Mrs. Mary E. St. Clair, Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. William Roome, and Miss B. F. Wolfe.

TWO D. A. R. LEADERS.

Rumpus Raised Over Tables for Breakfast to Mrs. Wilson Barren of Result.

"JUST A MISUNDERSTANDING"

The discord among the promoters of the national welcome breakfast in honor of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson tomorrow appears to be "all smoke and no fire." The whole affair apparently is a misunderstanding, growing out of a promise made by an unauthorized person connected with the breakfast to Mrs. George A. Armes, president of the District branch of the Women's National Democratic League, Southern organization.

Mrs. Steven B. Ayres, president of the Women's National Democratic League, chairman of the breakfast committee, refused yesterday to add fuel to the fire, and would say nothing further on the subject than to reiterate her former statements, "that no organization or hostess was ever offered more than one table at the breakfast to be given in honor of Mrs. Wilson." Mrs. Armes, however, insisted that the Wilson and Marshall League was at first offered three tables, and that this number was subsequently reduced to two.

The whole affair is believed to be the outgrowth of the offer of Mrs. Armes of three tables, with the privilege of a fourth, made by some one else than Mrs. Ayres, who is in charge of the breakfast. Mrs. Ayres refused to say that such an offer had not been made to Mrs. Armes, but she did declare that no one had the authority to make such an offer.

Mrs. Ayres declared that much of the alleged misunderstanding about the breakfast has been brought about by the credence given statements and assertions coming from irresponsible sources. Mrs. Ayres refused to discuss the declaration of Mrs. Champ Clark to attend the breakfast.

At a meeting of the local section of the Women's National Democratic League last night in the Riggs Building no mention of the coming affair was made. None present would discuss the matter.

A carefully prepared programme for work which will give its members a training in the practical affairs of government was outlined at the meeting last night. The members of the local section will first take up the study of parliamentary law under the instruction of Mrs. Nannette Paul, a parliamentarian of recognized ability and an expert in everything further in addition to this work, the league members will make a study of the tariff. Groups will attend sessions of Congress during consideration of the new tariff bill, and will gain from actual observation a further insight into the making of a tariff.

CIVIL PENSION LIST TO BE DISCUSSED

Two-day Conference of Classified Service Clerks Opens Here Today.

NATIONAL BODY PROBABLE

The two-day conference of the government clerks, which is being held here today, will be devoted to the discussion of the establishment of a civil pension list for superannuated clerks. It will be opened this morning at 9 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The conference will be held at the Twelfth and F Streets Northwest. Rev. W. H. Woodrow will make the opening prayer, and Commissioner Rudolph will welcome the delegates. Representative James A. Hamilton, author of the Hamilton bill, will make the opening address, and J. B. Callahan, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will address the convention at noon.

Virginia Miller will preside at the convention, and M. F. O'Donoghue will act as temporary secretary. It is the purpose of the meeting "to form a national organization to devise ways and means to provide for the retirement of superannuated government employees."

The call for the conference has been sent to all government clerks in the United States.

There will be about 250 representatives in attendance at the conference today and tomorrow. The official call for the conference urged the organization in each city where there were a sufficient number of civil service employees of a local association. These locals are urged to perfect a permanent organization, elect officers, and send delegates to the conference. The call further urged that such locals throughout the country collect dues and forward a certain portion to this city in the form of per capita annual dues to defray the expenses of the organization in this city, which is the head of the movement. President Wilson, in his letter to temporary Secretary O'Donoghue, sanctions the plan of forming locals and collecting dues for the purpose of defraying necessary expenses.

NOTED MEN HIS GUESTS.

James D. Richardson to Entertain Legislators at Dinner.

Vice President Marshall, Speaker Champ Clark, and members of Congress, who are Scottish Rite Masons, will be the guests of Sovereign Grand Commander James D. Richardson, at a dinner in their honor at the New Ebbitt next Wednesday evening.

Among those in Congress besides Vice President Marshall, and Speaker Champ Clark, who are known to be members of the order are Senators Chamberlain of Oregon, Clark and Warren of Wyoming, Lea of Tennessee, Clarke of Arkansas, Clapp of Minnesota, Owen of Oklahoma, Kern of Indiana, Johnson of Arkansas, and Fletcher of Florida; Representatives Stephens, Hays, and Keefe of California; Ryans of Tennessee; Murray of Oklahoma; Miller of Minnesota; Murdock of Kansas; Langley and Sherley of Kentucky; Adair, Morrison, and Peterson of Indiana, and Carlin of Virginia.

ALL SMOKE AND NO FIRE, SAYS MRS. AYRES

CARDINAL VISITS WILSON.

New York Prelate Declares Himself in Accord with Policies.

Cardinal Farley, of the New York Diocese, the first of the great Roman Catholic prelates to make a personal call on President Wilson, visited the White House yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by United States Senator James A. O'Gorman of New York.

The cardinal remained only a few minutes with President Wilson, but he took occasion to say he was heartily in accord with the ideals of government the Democratic administration has espoused.

Cardinal Gibbons is expected to visit the White House later in the week.

I. L. BLOUNT AGAIN CHOSEN.

Re-elected President of Washington Hebrew Congregation.

I. L. Blout, who has been president of Washington Hebrew congregation for fifteen years, was re-elected at the annual meeting Wednesday night. A. M. Fishel, vice president, and J. Eisenman, treasurer, also were re-elected. It is probable that David Kaufman, present secretary, will be re-elected at a future meeting.

The newly elected board of managers of the congregation is composed of Benjamin Solomon, Louis Simon, and Samuel Gians. The trustees are Joseph Herzog, David Wolf, and Louis J. Jackson.

There was much discussion as to the desirability of a return to the wearing of the ancient garb by rabbis when officiating at services. The matter was referred to a committee.

PHONE CASE IS POSTPONED.

Interstate Commerce Commission. Accedes to Attorneys' Request.

The hearings scheduled to begin yesterday before the Interstate Commerce Commission, the question of whether telephone companies operating across State lines are common carriers and as such are obliged to accept connections with other companies or individual telephone owners, have been postponed indefinitely.

Attorneys for the War Department and the telephone company requested a postponement, which was granted by the commission. It is probable that the case will come up in a week or ten days.

The issue, while it is national in scope, grew out of the demand of the officials of the War Department upon the local telephone company to afford an outlet to Washington over its cables to the existing large telephone exchange system at Fort Myer, just across the Potomac in Virginia.

The War Department's case will be presented before the commission by Clarence Wilson, United States District Attorney. H. B. F. Macfarland will represent the telephone companies.

EMBASSY REPORTS ON EMERSON CASE

English Prison Authorities Treat American Suffragette Leniently, States Charge d'Affaires Laughlin.

NO ACTION WILL BE TAKEN

The State Department yesterday received a complete report on the case of Miss Zelle Emerson, the American suffragist, who is in a London prison following her participation in a window-breaking episode, from Irvin B. Laughlin, charge d'affaires of the American Embassy in London. The report was sent upon the direction of Secretary of State Bryan, to whom friends of Miss Emerson, including Senators Townsend and Smith of Michigan, had appealed in her behalf.

Mr. Laughlin reports that if anything, Miss Emerson is being treated more leniently than are the English suffragists who are in prison with her for the same offense. He states that Mrs. Emerson, the young woman's mother, has been in London for a week, and has informed the embassy that she has no charges to make that the feeding of her daughter by means of a stomach tube has been applied in a manner to cause any discomfort inseparable from its nature. It is not expected that anything further will be done by the State Department in the case, in view of the embassy's report.

The American Embassy has had Miss Emerson's case under observation since February 18, when she was sentenced to two months hard labor for breaking windows in a suffrage agitation. The embassy then informed the friends of the young woman that no action could be taken unless it could be shown that the British authorities were discriminating in her case to the disadvantage of an American citizen.
